

Minnesota Zoo
Zoo Camp Cell Phone Policy

Cell phones and other electronic devices are allowed in Zoo Camp ONLY if used as cameras and use does not disengage camper or others from camp activities. However, taking pictures of other campers and guests is prohibited.

Exception: Campers may use devices during Before Care and After Care provided they follow the following rules:

- Use of it does not distract or offend others
- Content is age appropriate
- Profanity is prohibited
- Anything of a sexual nature is prohibited
- Watching movies is prohibited
- Making calls or live chatting/live video streaming of any kind is prohibited

Camp staff may regularly ask to look at devices to ensure adherence to the policy. Violation of this policy will result in devices not being allowed at Zoo Camp the remainder of the week. The Minnesota Zoo is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged items.
